

VISITING SUPPORTER GUIDE

2023/2024

FK CRVENA ZVEZDA

Crvena Zvezda, also known as Red Star Belgrade, is a renowned football club based in Belgrade, Serbia. Founded in 1945, we have a storied history and are one of the most successful teams in Serbia and the Balkans.

We have achieved remarkable success, winning numerous league titles, national cups, and the prestigious European Cup in 1991. Our strong tradition of developing talented players continues, and we remain a powerhouse in Serbian football.

Beyond the field, we actively engage in community initiatives, promoting youth development and social causes. Crvena Zvezda holds a special place in the hearts of football enthusiasts, remaining an iconic club in the Balkans and beyond.

STADIUM RAJKO MITIĆ

Welcome to Rajko Mitić Stadium, the iconic sports venue in Belgrade, Serbia. The Stadium was renamed in December 2014 in honor of former Red Star player and club legend Rajko Mitić, has a seating capacity of 49.450, making it the largest stadium in Serbia.

Marakana has hosted numerous international matches at a senior level, including European Cup final in 1973 between Ajax and Juventus in front of 91.564 spectators.

Two years later, in 1975, Red Star played Ferencvaros in the semi-finals of the European Cup Winners' Cup, which ended in a draw. Reportedly, this match had the record attendance of 110.000 spectators.

GETTING TO RAJKO MITIĆ STADIUM

Our stadium is located in 4 kilometers from the city center. As parking on a matchday is very limited the best way to travel to Rajko Mitić is by public transport.

BY BUS: there is a few bus stops outside Rajko Mitić -

On Bulevard Oslobođenja street 44, there are stops for buses 47, 48, 401 and 402;

On Ljutice Bogdana street 20, there are stops for buses 42, 59 and 78;

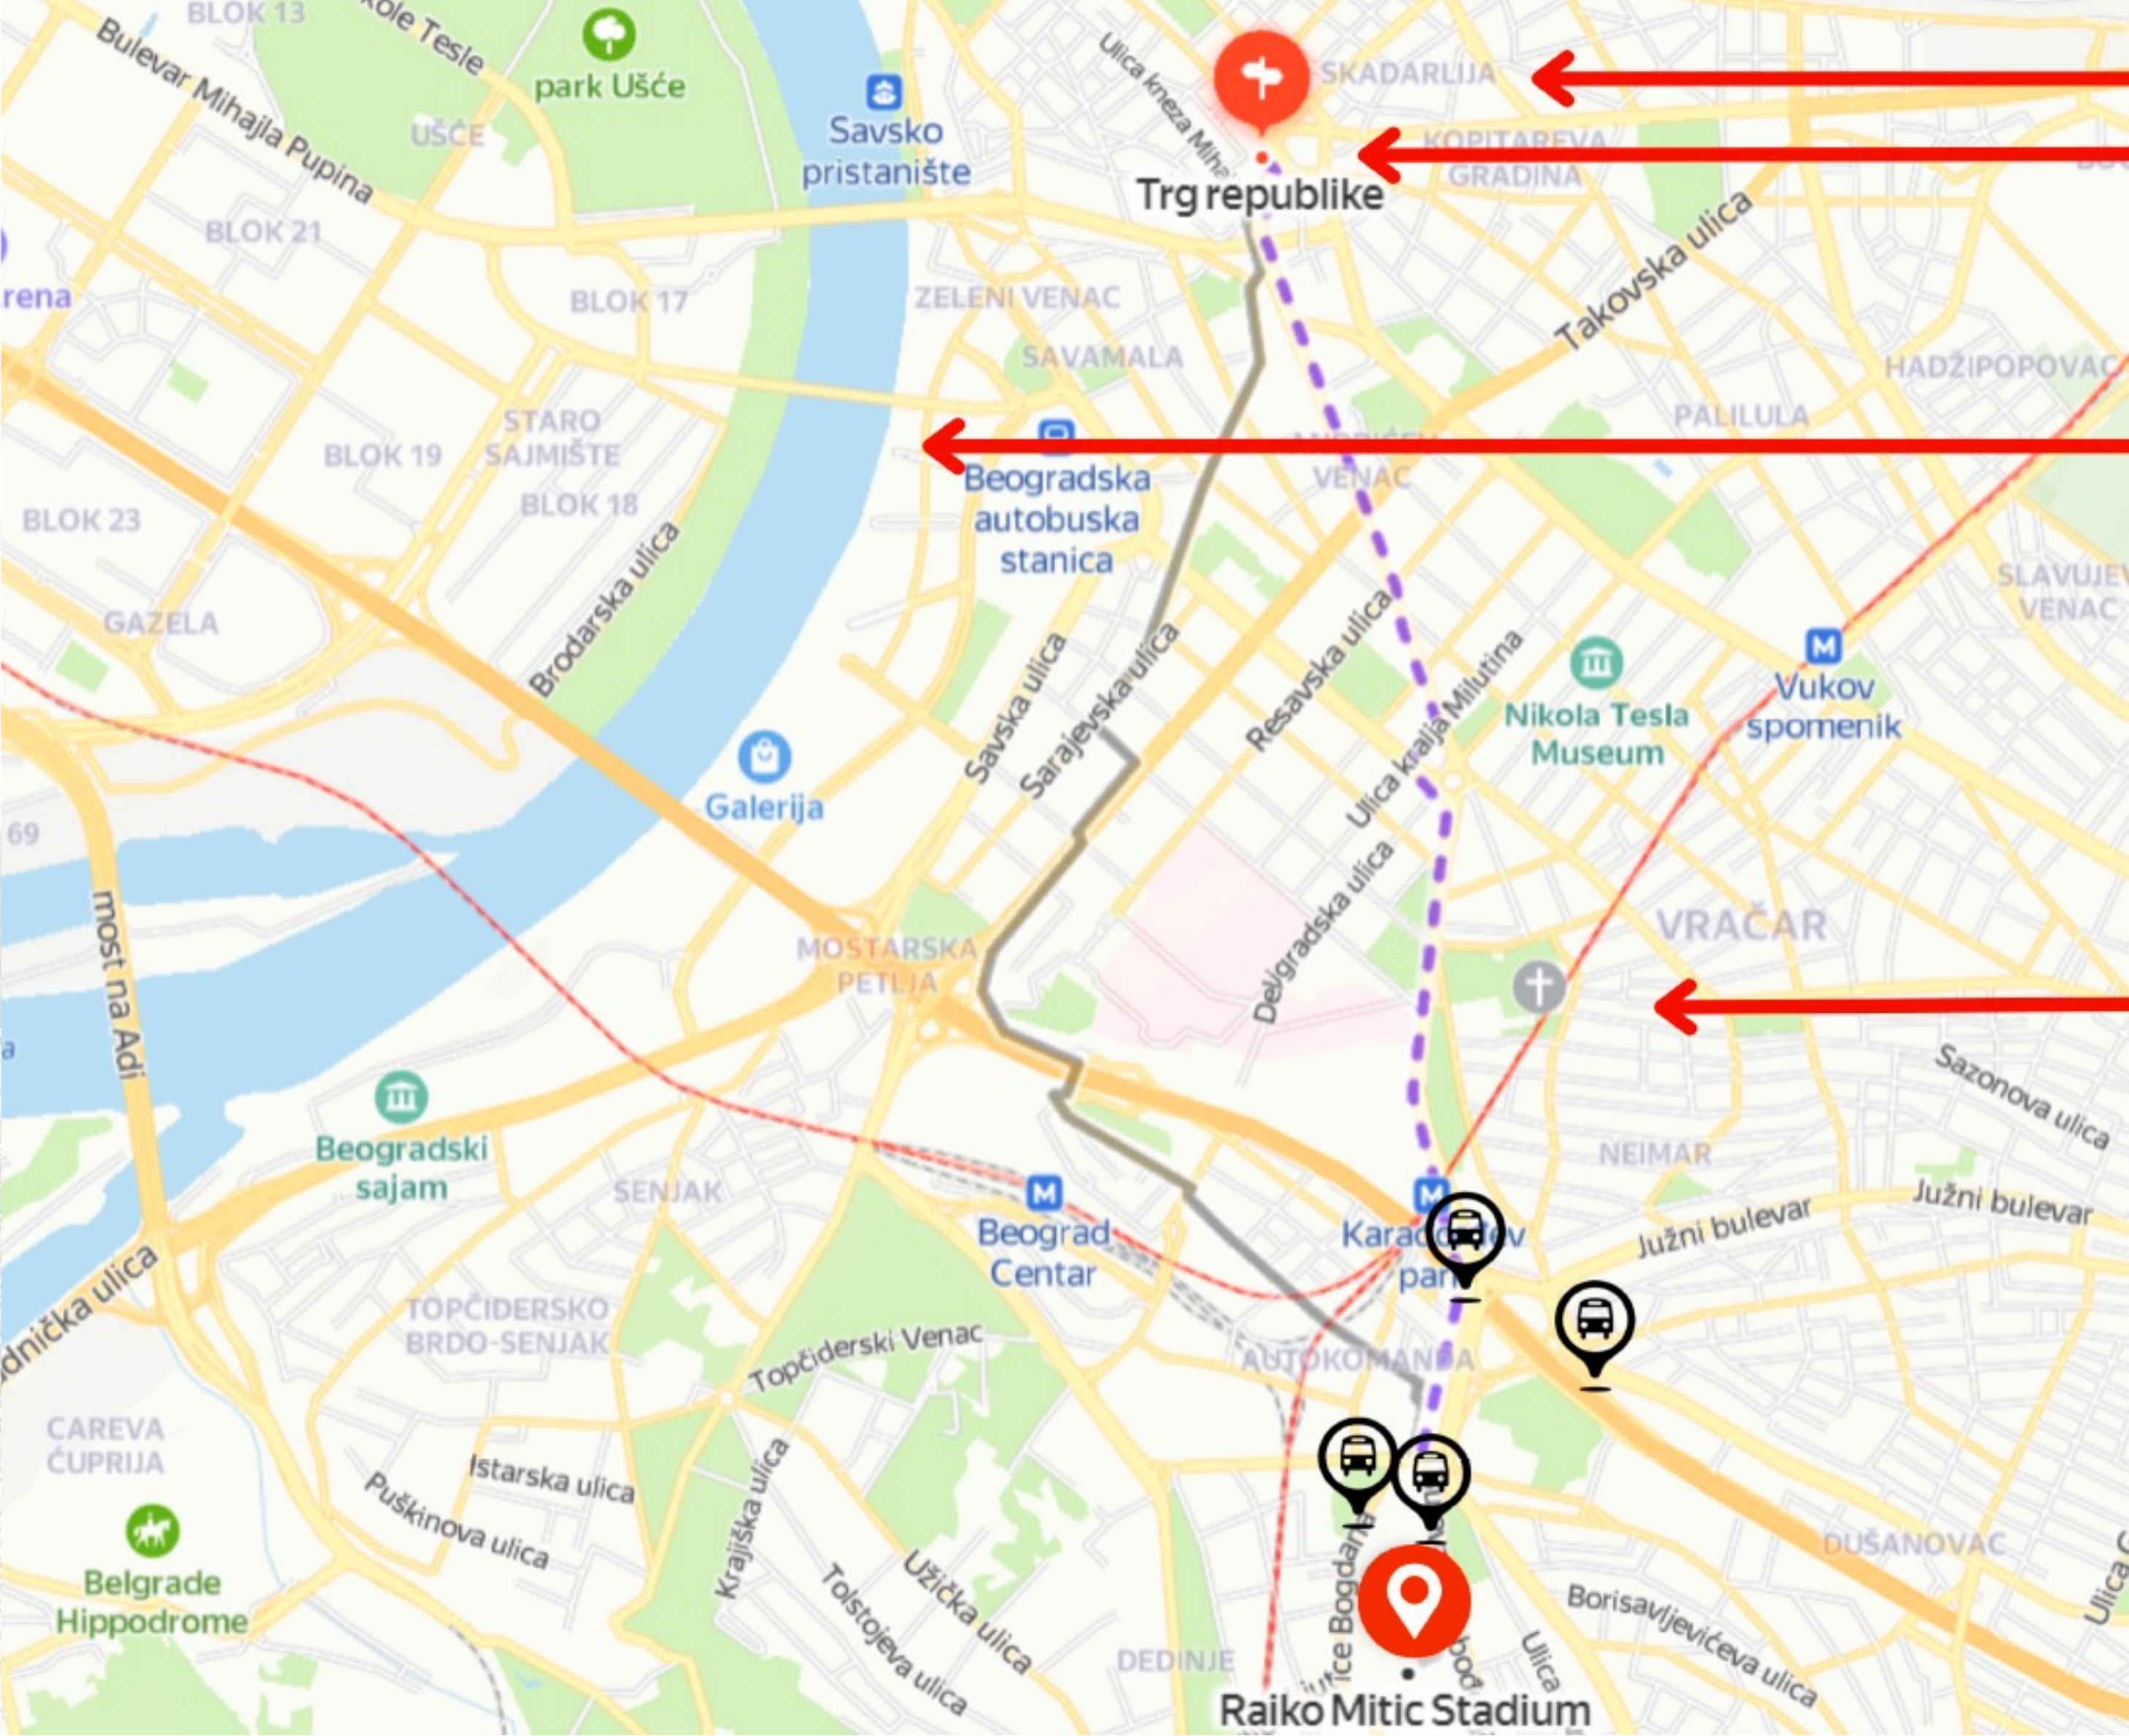

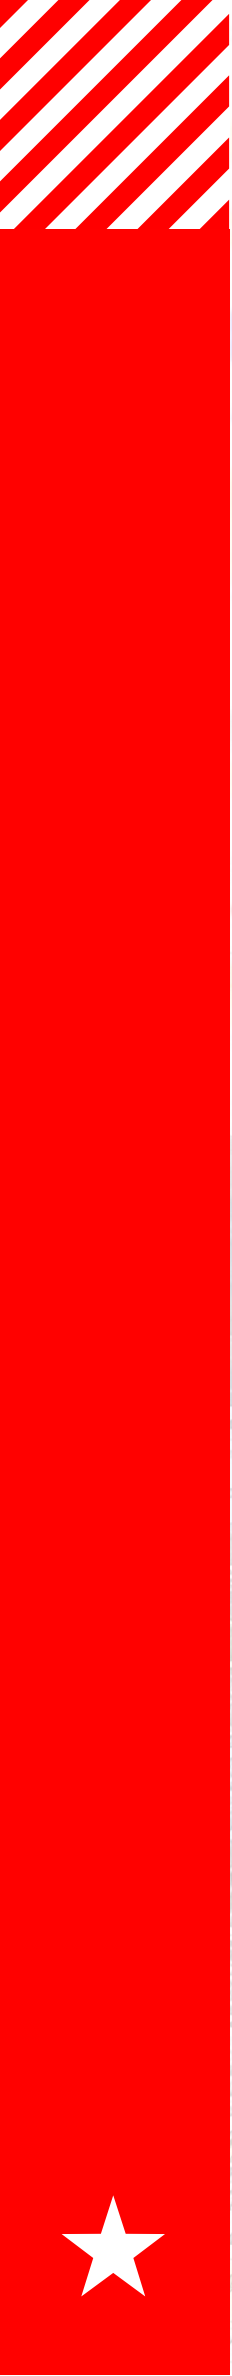

Stefana Prvovencanog street 1a, route E75, there are stops for buses 17, 18, 46, 55, 70. The bus stop for the same lines travelling from the other side is located on the other side of the road and is indicated on the map below.

BY TAXI: there is an option to arrive at the stadium by taxi. We recommend using the following taxi providers by installing their mobile applications: Yandex Taxi, CarGo, Pink Taxi. The approximate cost of the ride from the city center to Rajko Mitić Stadium is 10 EUR.

NB! Taxi is the best option to get to the city from the airport. We recommend using the aforementioned application or obtaining a voucher at the special info desk near the exit.
